

SOUTHWARK PENSIONERS' PARLIAMENT

Come and have your say!

Helen Hayes MP, Harriet Harman MP and Neil Coyle MP
warmly invite you to come to the next Southwark Pensioners Parliament

Come and meet your local Southwark MPs
Find what they have been working on.
Ask them about the things that affect you the most.

Chair - Charlie Smith, Mayor of Southwark,
Chair of Southwark Pensioners Centre

Wednesday 18 October 2017 at 10:00am
Portcullis House, 1-2 Bridge Street, London, SW1A 2JH

Free transport, and lunch provided back at the centre. We recommend you reserve a seat on the coach on a first come first served basis as places may go quickly .

Register on 0207 708 4556, or email dsteale@southwarkpensioners.org.uk
or pop into the Centre at 305 – 307 Camberwell Road, SE5, 0HQ.
Free transport leaves Southwark Pensioners Centre at 8.45am returning at approximately 1pm.

SOUTHWARK PENSIONERS' PARLIAMENT

Helen Hayes MP

Helen Elizabeth Hayes was elected as the Member of Parliament for Dulwich and West Norwood in the 2015 general election. "I am delighted and honoured to have been re-elected as the Member of Parliament for Dulwich and West Norwood, which has been my home for almost 20 years. Thank you to everyone who voted. I am here to represent everyone in this constituency, no matter how you voted".

Harriet Harman MP

Harriet Ruth Harman, QC is a British solicitor and Labour Party Member of Parliament since 1982, first for Peckham, then Camberwell and Peckham since 1997. Harriet was first elected MP for Peckham (now Camberwell and Peckham) in 1982. After the death of MP Harry Lambourne in 1982, Harriet won the by-election whilst 7 months pregnant. Labour had 268 MPs then, compared to 339 Tory MPs and she came into Parliament as one of only 10 Labour women MPs.

Neil Coyle MP

Neil Coyle is Member of Parliament (MP) for Bermondsey & Old Southwark, first elected at the 2015 general election and had served the constituency as a councillor for Newington ward in 2010. Upon re-election as a councillor, he became Southwark Deputy Mayor, as well as trustee for a local mental health charity and the North Southwark Environment Trust. He is also a national policy and campaigns advisor on social care, tackling poverty and raising funds for the Evelina Children's Hospital and for a local Garden Farm.

A & E Elkins

A & E Elkins Ltd is a local family contractor, established in 1963. We have worked in partnership with Southwark council for many years on estate refurbishment, maintenance and roofing projects. As part of our ongoing commitment to giving back to communities in which we work, we are proud to support and sponsor events for all generations in Southwark